

The War Goes On

Featuring Iraq War Veteran & Resister Camilo Mejia

first U.S. veteran to publicly refuse further service

I was afraid of waking up one morning to realize my humanity had abandoned me. By putting my weapon down, I chose to reassert myself as a human being.
-- Camilo Mejia

Sunday, March 20, 4:00 p.m.
Unitarian Universalist Church
505 E. Charleston Road, Palo Alto

Mark the 8th anniversary of the U.S. war in Iraq: a war that continues in the physical, emotional, moral and spiritual suffering inflicted on the Iraqi people, U.S. military personnel, and families of fallen soldiers.

Responding Panel:

Karen Meredith – Gold Star Mother whose son was killed in Iraq
Ben Daniel – Presbyterian pastor & faith-based social commentator
Paul George – Director of Peninsula Peace & Justice Center

Free and open to the public ~ Donations gratefully received!

Sponsored by Multifaith Voices for Peace & Justice, Peninsula Peace & Justice Center, American Muslim Voice, Los Altos Voices for Peace, Veterans for Peace Chapter 101, Unitarian Universalist Church of PA Action Council, First Presbyterian Church of PA, West Bay Chapter of the Buddhist Peace Fellowship, First United Methodist Church Outreach Committee, Stanford Says No to War, Network of Spiritual Progressives.

See www.multifaithpeace.org for more information