

EYES WIDE OPEN COMES TO PALO ALTO

SATURDAY, MAY 3, 10AM - SUNDAY, MAY 4, 6PM

KING PLAZA, CORNER OF HAMILTON & RAMONA, PALO ALTO

VOLUNTEER FOR TWO-HOUR SHIFT AT WWW.MYSIGNUP.COM/VIGILVOLUNTEERS

Eyes Wide Open, the American Friends Service Committee's widely-acclaimed exhibition on the human cost of the Iraq War, features a pair of boots honoring each U.S. military casualty from California (about 450), a labyrinth of civilian shoes to memorialize the Iraqis killed in the conflict and a display exploring the history, cost and consequences of the war. Individuals, families and friends are invited to honor and grieve for lost loved ones and strangers, near and far. The exhibit creates a sacred place for prayer, meditation, reflection, sorrow, and commitment to build a world of peace. Most of the time the vigil area is silent, with occasional quiet prayers, music and conversation. To learn more about the exhibit, go to www.afsc.org/eyes.

Civilian shoes can be dropped off Monday through Friday at these locations: Unitarian Universalist Church in Palo Alto, 505 E. Charleston Rd.; PPJC, 457 Kingsley Avenue; or 1st Presbyterian Church, 1140 Cowper Street.

Sponsored by Multifaith Voices for Peace & Justice, Peninsula Peace and Justice Center, American Muslim Voice, South Bay Jewish Voice for Peace, Council of Churches of Santa Clara County, Mountain View Voices for Peace, First Presbyterian Church Palo Alto, Unitarian Universalist Church of Palo Alto, Pax Christi at Stanford, Peace and Justice Task Force of First Congregational Church Palo Alto, Council on American-Islamic Relations – SF Bay Area, Declaration of Peace-San Mateo County, Los Altos Voices for Peace, Veterans for Peace/Veterans Speakers Alliance Chapter 69 and Veterans for Peace Chapter 101. West Bay Chapter of the Buddhist Peace Fellowship.

EYES WIDE OPEN COMES TO PALO ALTO

SATURDAY, MAY 3, 10AM – SUNDAY MAY 4, 6PM
KING PLAZA, HAMILTON & RAMONA, PALO ALTO

VOLUNTEER FOR TWO-HOUR SHIFT AT
WWW.MYSIGNUP.COM/VIGILVOLUNTEERS

Eyes Wide Open, the American Friends Service Committee's widely-acclaimed exhibition on the human cost of the Iraq War, features a pair of boots honoring each U.S. military casualty from California (about 450), a labyrinth of civilian shoes to memorialize the Iraqis killed in the conflict and a display exploring the history, cost and consequences of the war.

Individuals, families and friends are invited to honor and grieve for lost loved ones and strangers, near and far. The exhibit creates a sacred place for prayer, meditation, reflection, sorrow, and commitment to build a world of peace. Most of the time the vigil area is silent, with occasional quiet prayers, music and conversation. To learn more about the exhibit, go to www.afsc.org/eyes. Civilian shoes can be dropped off Monday through Friday at these locations: Unitarian Universalist Church in Palo Alto, 505 E. Charleston Rd.; PPJC, 457 Kingsley Avenue; or 1st Presbyterian Church, 1140 Cowper Street.

Sponsored by Multifaith Voices for Peace & Justice, Peninsula Peace and Justice Center, American Muslim Voice, South Bay Jewish Voice for Peace, Council of Churches of Santa Clara County, Mountain View Voices for Peace, First Presbyterian Church Palo Alto, Unitarian Universalist Church of Palo Alto, Pax Christi at Stanford, Peace and Justice Task Force of First Congregational Church Palo Alto, Council on American-Islamic Relations – SF Bay Area, Declaration of Peace-San Mateo County, Los Altos Voices for Peace, Veterans for Peace/Veterans Speakers Alliance Chapter 69 and Veterans for Peace Chapter 101. West Bay Chapter of the Buddhist Peace Fellowship.

EYES WIDE OPEN COMES TO PALO ALTO

SATURDAY, MAY 3, 10AM – SUNDAY MAY 4, 6PM
KING PLAZA, HAMILTON & RAMONA, PALO ALTO

VOLUNTEER FOR TWO-HOUR SHIFT AT
WWW.MYSIGNUP.COM/VIGILVOLUNTEERS

Eyes Wide Open, the American Friends Service Committee's widely-acclaimed exhibition on the human cost of the Iraq War, features a pair of boots honoring each U.S. military casualty from California (about 450), a labyrinth of civilian shoes to memorialize the Iraqis killed in the conflict and a display exploring the history, cost and consequences of the war.

Individuals, families and friends are invited to honor and grieve for lost loved ones and strangers, near and far. The exhibit creates a sacred place for prayer, meditation, reflection, sorrow, and commitment to build a world of peace. Most of the time the vigil area is silent, with occasional quiet prayers, music and conversation. To learn more about the exhibit, go to www.afsc.org/eyes. Civilian shoes can be dropped off Monday through Friday at these locations: Unitarian Universalist Church in Palo Alto, 505 E. Charleston Rd.; PPJC, 457 Kingsley Avenue; or 1st Presbyterian Church, 1140 Cowper Street (Mon-Fri 9am – 2pm).

Sponsored by Multifaith Voices for Peace & Justice, Peninsula Peace and Justice Center, American Muslim Voice, South Bay Jewish Voice for Peace, Council of Churches of Santa Clara County, Mountain View Voices for Peace, First Presbyterian Church Palo Alto, Unitarian Universalist Church of Palo Alto, Pax Christi at Stanford, Peace and Justice Task Force of First Congregational Church Palo Alto, Council on American-Islamic Relations – SF Bay Area, Declaration of Peace-San Mateo County, Los Altos Voices for Peace, Veterans for Peace/Veterans Speakers Alliance Chapter 69 and Veterans for Peace Chapter 101. West Bay Chapter of the Buddhist Peace Fellowship.

EYES WIDE OPEN COMES TO PALO ALTO

SATURDAY, MAY 3, 10AM - SUNDAY, MAY 4, 6PM

KING PLAZA, CORNER OF HAMILTON & RAMONA

VOLUNTEER FOR TWO-HOUR SHIFT AT

WWW.MYSIGNUP.COM/VIGILVOLUNTEERS

Eyes Wide Open, the American Friends Service Committee's widely-acclaimed exhibition on the human cost of the Iraq War, features a pair of boots honoring each U.S. military casualty from California (about 450), a labyrinth of civilian shoes to memorialize the Iraqis killed in the conflict and a display exploring the history, cost and consequences of the war. Individuals, families and friends are invited to honor and grieve for lost loved ones and strangers, near and far. The exhibit creates a sacred place for prayer, meditation, reflection, sorrow, and commitment to build a world of peace.

Most of the time the vigil area is silent, with occasional quiet prayers, music and conversation. To learn more about the exhibit, go to www.afsc.org/eyes.

Civilian shoes can be dropped off at these locations Monday through Friday: Unitarian Universalist Church in Palo Alto, 505 E. Charleston Rd.; PPJC, 457 Kingsley Avenue; or 1st Presbyterian Church, 1140 Cowper Street.

Sponsored by Multifaith Voices for Peace & Justice, Peninsula Peace and Justice Center, American Muslim Voice, South Bay Jewish Voice for Peace, Council of Churches of Santa Clara County, Mountain View Voices for Peace, First Presbyterian Church Palo Alto, Unitarian Universalist Church of Palo Alto, Pax Christi at Stanford, Peace and Justice Task Force of First Congregational Church Palo Alto, Council on American-Islamic Relations – SF Bay Area, Declaration of Peace-San Mateo County, Los Altos Voices for Peace, Veterans for Peace/Veterans Speakers Alliance Chapter 69 and Veterans for Peace Chapter 101. West Bay Chapter of the Buddhist Peace Fellowship.